Today ,in this article, I want to talk about interesting tips and tricks for memorizing words that are difficult for most foreign language learners.

Key words: context clues, words of the day method, words in stories, you tube videos.

There different kind of tips for learning new words in order to remember and use in your daily speech. I would like to share 5 useful tips and games which is suitable for everyone.

1- Context clues method

If you come across an unfamiliar words in the text while you are reading, try to determine this word from the context of the sentence. You can define it through words. For example, "The building was very magnificent, even more beautiful than Taj Makhal". The word magnificent is unfamiliar to you ,in this time you can use context clues method. First you read hole sentences, if you know other words meaning accept "magnificent" .The word " beautiful " can closer to the "magnificent" in the sentence, and you will be right. Reading that sentence, you can not get the word's hole definitions but you can understand that this words mean something like "too beautiful". Magnificent means " astonishing, beautiful ". You can see how using context clues method can help you to figure out what a word means However using this method even a sentence can not give enough information to figure out what a word means. If you have difficulties to understand, it will be better using dictionary or asking somebody to explain it to you.

2- Watching fun movies

Watching videos, movies in English can be a key strategy in your vocabulary building journey. The reason why it is useful is that provide context. This means that you can easily learn new words with images, actions and Visual cues. There are so many fantastic and funny channels which dedicated to teaching you for learning new words in a fun way. For example, I am keen on detective " Sherlock Holmes and Emile Holmes" videos. In this videos, you will learn quickly and common English adjectives through this funny movie.

3- Have fun with word Magnet game

There are so many place that you see every day. The most visual place is you fridge. Put some vocabulary which unfamiliar for you on your refrigerator. So every time, you head to the kitchen for a snack or a drink, you will see the words right in front of you .Some scientists suggested that " whatever you choose ,make sure it has words you do not know yet". You can create your own magnet if you want, try to make sentence with them.

4- Use New words in Storium an online community writing game

Most instructors advice this game to language learners. In this game ,you should create a story with other players- in real time. Every player chooses a character and gets a set of cards that influence how the story develops. All players take turn using their own cards, and contributing paragraphs to the story. It is motivational way to get some English vocabulary exercises in context.

5- Find words to use " Words of the day" game

Every day when you are having morning coffee ,you should choose two or three words as your words of the your day .Try to remember them and write down somewhere. During the day ,make it a game to try and find ways to use it your conversation with your family or friend. Saying the words out loud in sentence will help you remember what they mean and your partner might enjoy and learn new words. At the end of this article, I should say that, learning new English vocabulary can be a fun part of your life. Just try to use tips and games which I mentioned above. You might not become an instructor but you will learn many new words and tips without frustration of flashcards.
